

Program of the International Scientific-Practical Seminar
«Accessible Art-therapy for Hearing and Visual Impaired People»
April, 4 2019

Novosibirsk State Technical University, Institute of Social Technologies and Rehabilitation (Karl Marx Avenue, 20, building 8, room 207)
09:00—9:30	Registration of participants
09:20—10:00	An excursion around the ISTR — Ksenija A. Volkova
10:00—11:45	Scientific-practical seminar «Accessible art-therapy for hearing and visual impaired people» 1. Presentation of the of the project idea: directress of the ISTR NSTU Ludmila Osmuk. Specialists of the ISTR NSTU: 2. Galina Oganessian, a teacher of the highest category from the chair of Decorative and Applied Art “Work with potter’s clay as a form of art-therapy for people with limited abilities of their health”; 3. Julija Zarzhetskaya, a pedagogue-psychologist of the ISTR NSTU «Technology of work of sensory room”; 4. Alexey Talashkin, a pedagogue of additional education of the ISTR «A system of work with hard of hearing students in the theatre studio». Presentation of successful Russian and foreign practices; 5. A. Khohlova, Master of pedagogical Sciences, a lecturer from the chair of Special psychology and rehabilitology of MSPPU, a psychologist of the research centre “Yaseneva Poliana” (Moscow), «Review of the ready-made methodological course books and video-courses, created by the Foundation of the deaf and blinds’ support, named “Soedinenije”; 6. Dominique Archambault, professor of the University 8, Paris, France «Tactile books as training element for blind children», Elena Crivenko — an interpreter. 7. E. Belokopytova, J. Pohomova, Pottery workshop «Clever», Novosibirsk; 8. T. Medjuh, director of Centre of realization of creative projects “Inclusion”, Moscow; 9. O. Stvolova, «Inclusion». Theatre «Special TYPE» Novosibirsk; 10. A. Khohlova, a psychologist of the research centre “Yaseneva Poliana” (Moscow), Daria Salnikova, a Master student of the MSPU, a participant of the project «Tutors and Pupils» «An experience of holding group art-therapy for children with MDVI».
12:00—13:00	Discussion of successful practices.
13:00—14:15	Dinner
Continuation of the seminar Departure to the «Special (correction) boarding school № 37» (Pribrezhnaya str., 2)
15:00—15:30	An excursion around the school.
15:30—17:30	«Comfort informative-communicative environment for hard of hearing people». A Joint seminar (school № 37, RC «Yaseneva Poliana», ISTR NSTU). 1. Greetings: - Irina Zaitseva, directress of the school № 37; - L. Frolova, directress of the RC «Yaseneva Poliana». 2. Alla Bertik, a head of the Laboratory of the information training technologies at the ISTR NSTU; Olga Varinova, a head of the Laboratory of Russian Sign Language at the ISTR NSTU; Natalia Ogurtsova, a teacher of the highest category at the chair of Special Pedagogics of the ISTR NSTU, «Mobility of hearing and visual impaired people and their social integration». 3. Silvio Pagliara, professor of the University Foro Italico, Rome «Inclusive education and adoption of informative-communicative and assistive technologies. An experience of Italian cities». 4. Svetlana Elfimova, a specialist of the Sign Language Laboratory of the ISTR NSTU; Marina Sutyrina, a teacher of the highest category from the chair of Special Pedagogics of the ISTR NSTU «Communicative technologies in work with hearing and visual impaired people». 5. Summing up the results.