

38.04.01 Economics Master's Degree program International business
World Trade and Finance 3 ECTS
Course/semester	Master's degree program, 2/1
Teachers	Assistant professor, Ph.D. in Economics V.V.Krupchatnikova
Learning outcomes	The aim of the discipline is to get students familiar with the development tendencies of World trade and world current system, to study main theories of international trade and finance, to teach how to analyze the world statistics and problems of economic interactions between the Russian federation and foreign economies at the world trade and current markets.
Content	Comparative and competitive advantages of some countries in the international trade. Foreign trade policy. Tariff and non-tariff regulation of the foreign trade policy. World trade market. Structure and dynamics of the international trade. Forms and methods of the international trade. International trade policy. World currency system. International settlement balances. Institutions, operations, current market instruments. International crediting and loaning. International monetary and financial organizations.
Background knowledge requirements	Disciplines: Principles of Innovation Economies (5semester), Management (4), Marketing (5), Company Economics (3)
Course structure	Lectures -18hours, tutorials – 36 hours, test-2, independent work – 54hours. Pass/Fail -2. Total 108hours.
Final assessment – examination	Point rating system: Point rating system: 0–49 fail; 50–100 pass 80% – current work, 20% –pass
Organization peculiarities of educational process and educational resources	Active methods of teaching: work in small groups, topic discussions, exercises, tests. Test is performed in writing during the individual work. Educational materials 1.Krupchatnikova V.V. World economy and international economic relations (electronic access): electronic educational complex/V.V. krupchatnikova; NSTU. – Novosibirsk, 2014, access mode: http://dispace.edu.nstu.ru/didesk/course/show/3472 2.International monetary and financial relations: textbook/under L.N.Krasavina – M.: Finance and Statistics 3.Rudneva A.O. International trade and world trade markets. Analytical textbook / O.A. Rudneva. – M.: Vostok – Zapad, 2009.